Central Executive Committee Votes to Back Minister Tchitcherin.

MOSCOW, June 17 .- The foreign oolicy of M. Tchitcherin, the bolsheik minister of foreign affairs, was ndorsed by a resolution of all the Russian central executive commitee today after a lengthy debate in by Frank C. Merritt. which Tchitherin's attitude toward nostile powers was attacked by Sosnovshy and Osinsky, members of the military faction, and defended by Karl Radek and others.

M. Tchitcherin, in a long speech, asserted that Russia had maintained the policy of trying to make peace with all her enemies during the past with all her enemies during the past five months. He blamed western cap-italism for the failure. He declared that England was trying to impose conditions for the resumption of trade, and offering nothing in return. The British government gave no assurances that trade would be resumed, but in the meantime, he asserted, supported the forces at war with soviet Russia. No agreement was possible except on the basis of was powerless in the face of the violence of the opposing parties and the military ultimately had to be called out. The efforts of the troops resulted in the restoration of comparatively tranquil conditions by midnight, although firing continued several hours more.

The reports received by the au-thorities during the morning showed that several men had been wounded in the fighting.

During the fray armed parties of both factions controlled large areas in various parts of the city. These parties stopped all pedestrians, whom they searched for arms.

Londonderry was the scene of vio-lent rioting on Saturday night, May 15, unionists and nationalists clash-ing for hours in parts of the Ulster city. A policeman was killed by the rioters and many persons were wounded during the fighting. The rioting was renewed on Sunday, and hundreds of troops had to be brought to the scene. It was not until well into the week that the city was fully quieted down. The principal trouble area was between the unionist quar-ter of Fountain street and the Sinn Fein quarter of Bridge street.
